CENTS.

328 1793 Flowing hair; rev., ehain; United States of America: Crosby & Levick 2 B.; all parts distinct; fair for the variety, rare.

329 1793 Flowing hair: rev., wreath; C. & L. 7 F.; edge with bars and vines; very good, nearly fine, rare.

330 1793 Same variety as the last, and nearly as good; rare.

331 1793 Totally different, both obverse and reverse, from any deseribed variety of the 1793 Cent, and of a design far surpassing in artistic beauty any Cent ever issued from the United States Mint: probably the work of the late Mr. Smith.

332 1793 Liberty Cap; perfect die, dark color and somewhat corroded, but distinct in every part; very good, rare.

333 1794 Fine; edge a trifle bruised, or would be very fine; rare.

334 1794 A variety nearly as good as the last.

335 1795 Thick planchet; One Cent high in the wreath; lettered edge, good.

336 1795 Thin planchet; good, impression weak and color dark, but not much circulated.

337 1795 Jefferson Head; edge somewhat bruised, in other particulars the condition is good: nearly fine. I think it the third best of the variety known; of extreme rarity.

338 1796 Liberty cap; good, much better than usually found, scarce.

339 1796 Fillet head; obverse fine; rev. weakly struck in centre; a fine cent for this date and variety, rare.

340 1797 Fine, nearly uncirculated, rare.

341 1798 Very fine, barely touched by circulation.

342 1799 Very good, fine for date; date, head, and Liberty plain and distinct; rev. lightly struck at the left, but everything clear except "United" and the bottom of $\frac{1}{100}$, which are faint; guaranteed genuine and original. Shows plainly the dot on the reverse, which is sometimes called the mint-mark, extremely rare.

343 1800 Fine; a break in the die at date; differs from any other that I have noticed.

344 1801 Good.

345 1802 Only a little circulated; impression weak over the head; rev. has $\frac{1}{000}$.

346 1802 Very fine, good color, barely circulated, scarce.

347 1803 Fine, about equal to the last, scarce.

348 1804 Perfect die; unusually good, may be called fine for an 1804 of this variety, every part being distinct, and the coin but little worn; guaranteed genuine and original, very rare.

349 1804 Broken die; nearly though not quite equal to the last; surface not so fine; in other particulars about the same; sold with the same guarantee as the preceding; very rare.

350 1804 Restrike; uncirculated.

351 1805 Very fine; brouze color.

352 1806 Fine for the date; same color as the last; one of the most difficult dates to find in perfect condition; this is unusually good, rare.

353 1807 Very good.

354 1808 Very fine; good color; stars to the left of the head a little weak; scarce.

355 1809 Fine for date; stars have been improved by the graver; rare.

356 1810 Fine impression; uncirculated; handsome color; rev. shows only slight cabinet friction; rare.

357 1811 But a trifle circulated; very good, but of dark color; scarce.

358 1812 Fine; stars not sharp; but only a little circulated.

359 1813 Very good; in about the condition of the last.

360 1814 Plain 4; nearly proof surface; planchet a little imperfect; in other respects a very fine cent; scarce.

361 1814 Cross on the 4; dark surface, a trifle rough, but a fine, uncirculated cent; rare.

362 1816 Uncirculated.

363 1817 Seventeen stars; very fine for this variety, has been but little in circulation; rare.

364 1817 Perfect die; uncirculated.

365 1817 Broken die; uncirculated.

366 1818 Uncirculated, with fine shining surface. I think it is a proof impression, weakly struck; rare.

367 1819 Very fine, nearly equal to the last.

368 1820 Very fine, perfect die; scarce.

369 1821 Good, almost fine, scarce.

370 1822 Very fine indeed, barely circulated, but I am afraid the stars have been improved by Mr. Bowdoin; scarce.

371 1823 over 1822 Unusually good, fine for an 1823.

372 1823 Restrike; plain date, the finest I have ever seen, the obv. being nearly proof; the rev. is also very fine, though it shows the rusted spots in the die; very desirable.

373 1824 Uncommonly good, very little circulated, rarely found in such fine condition.

374 1825 Very good, almost fine.

375 1826 Rough planchet, but only a little circulated.

376 1827 Very fine.

In the Catalogue of my 33d sale, No. 1508 is "1879 Gold Dollar, far rarer than the 1858 silver dollar." This statement is an error which I will explain. On the 22d day of December, 1879, I called at the Mint in Philadelphia, and in conversation with one of the officers or clerks, he gave me the information that only twenty-seven gold proof sets had been struck up to that date, and that a large proportion of that small number remained unsold: he also informed me that twenty-seven was the entire number struck of gold dollars and three dollar pieces, and that there would probably be no more made during the year. Influenced by this statement I purchased a gold set, and until recently was not aware that the actual issue of these two coins exceeded one thousand each.

I beg to offer an apology to collectors for so far forgetting myself as to make any statement for fact, based on information obtained from the Mint of the United States.

PRICED COIN SALE CATALOGUES, ETC.

Catalogues of Coin Sales prior to 1870, are nearly all rare. A recent purchase enables me to present at this time an unusually large number, some of which have hardly been seen in sales for many years.

It may be understood that the names given are names of owners, unless they are names of auctioneers; all are priced, unless otherwise mentioned, mostly in ink, some in red and some in black, and neatly done,—a few in pencil; some have names of purchasers added: pp indicates printed prices, n the addition of names.

COINS OF CHINA.

The coins here described were collected at Foochow, Southeastern China, by Rev. Charles Hartwell, an American Missionary located at that place. They are nearly all, as Chinese coins usually are, in a sort of bronze, composed of copper, zinc, lead, and tin, in various proportions. They all seem to be selected specimens; many are fine, and nearly all are in good condition, considering their age, and it is said by those familiar with the subject, that many pieces of ordinary appearing Cash can be procured only with great difficulty; the medals, and some of the larger coins are known to be rare. They are all numbered and attached to cloth, with names and other particulars in Chinese, date, etc., in English.

1742 2356 B. C. Tarng-kiu-hoi; a fork-shaped coin of the time of Shun; very rare. 24 x 35.

1743 245 B. C. Kew-taou; the smallest of all the coins of this denomination; razor-shaped, very rare. Length 83, breadth 11.

1744 245 B. C. Hing-tsz-taou; razor-shaped coin, one side inscribed, the other plain. Length 96.

1745 178 B. C. Pwarn-leang, or half leang; obv. inscribed; rev. plain. 15.

1746 139 B. C. Pwarn-leang, and Sarn-choo. 3 pcs. 14–16.

1747 139 B. C. Woo-choo-tsien; edge raised to prevent clipping or filing. This peculiarity of coinage seems to indicate that our Chinese brethren were at an early period addicted to ways that are dark. 3 pcs. 16.

1748 9 A. D. Tar-tseuen-woo-shih. 2 pieces. 15, 17.

1749 9 A. D. Kee-taou; key-shaped coin of gold-colored bronze, patinated. 44 x 17.

1750 9 A. D. Duplicate, but of nearly double width.

1751 9 A. D. Hor-poo; fork-shaped coin; fine.

1752 9 A. D. Duplicate of the last; equally fine.

1753 9 A. D. Poo-tseuen, called the male tsien. It is said that those who carry it about with them will have sons born to them. 16.

1754 9 A. D. Hor-poo. 5 pieces. 13, 14.

1755 25 A. D. Woo-choo. 16.

1756 424 to 1063 A series of coins representing the different reigns during the long period of 640 years; the material varying from the yellow golden bronze to that of a color resembling iron. The coins are called by various unpronounceable names, are all circular with the square hole in the centre, and are in size from 14 to 22. 77 pieces.

1757 1064–1274 Representing the various reigns, with scarcely a break; all in form of the preceding, but will average of larger size, the largest being 26. 130 pcs.

1758 1218 Garn-paou-hor: a fine coin, and said to be very rare. 27.

1759 1308–1505 Another series, covering the period indicated; though not so full as the preceding lots, it contains several remarkable pieces. 14 to 28. 17 pcs.

1760 1506 Large circular coin, of yellow bronze, the reverse representing two dragons; fine and rare. 36.

1761 1522–1643 A series, varying in size from 16 to 28; one, octagonal in form, is very rare. 20 pieces.

The lots following are all of the present, or Manchu dynasty.

1762 1616 Tsien, or Cash; "Imperial coin of the Heavenly Mandate," (period). 18.

1763 1644–1661 A series issued during the reign of Shè-tsoo, the first of the Manchu Emperors; the obverse of each is inscribed in Chinese "Current Coin of the compliant government"; the inscriptions on the reverse indicate, in most instances, the place of coinage; most of the pieces are in yellow bronze, and they show a marked improvement in workmanship. Average size about 17. 36 pieces.

1764 1662–1722 Coins of Shing-tsoo; obv., "Current Coin of the Peaceful Lustre"; rev. of the one numbered 70: "Fountain head of the Currency"; 71, "Source of the Currency"; the others bear the names of the various mints at which they were coined. 25 pieces.

1765 1723–1735 Coins of Shè tsung; "Current Coin of the Agreeable Rectitude" on the obverse of each; the reverses bear, generally, the names of the various mints where they were coined; similar material, but size somewhat less than the preceding. 12 pieces.

1766 1736–1795 Coins of Kaou tsung; all inscribed "Current Coin of the Celestial Support"; reverses different; size and material like the preceding. 21 pcs.

1767 1796–1820 Coins of Jin tsung; "Current Coin of the Increasing Felicity"; reverses indicate the place of coinage. 19 pieces.

1768 1821–1850 Coins of Senen tsung; obv., "Current Coin of the Reason's Lustre." 17 pieces.

1769 1851–1861 Coins of the eighth Emperor of the Manchu dynasty; "Current Coin of the Prevailing Abundance"; and another of the succeeding reign. 11 pcs.

1770 Token Coin for Fifty Cash, from the mint of Soo-Chow; yellow bronze, very fine, scarce. 34.

1771 Token Coin for Ten Cash; fine. 23.

1772 Another, from the Board of Revenue mint, for Ten Cash; fine. 22.

1773 Another, for Ten Cash, issued by the Board of Works; fine. 22.

1774 One of the new coins of the value of Five Cash; from the Board of Works; fine. 19.

1775 Token Coin for Ten Cash, coined at the Che-keang mint; seems to be of iron; fine. 24.

1776 Another, of the same nominal value, but of larger size and better material; from the Soo-chow mint. 29.

1777 Same as the preceding in value and mintage, but of diminished size. 22.

1778 Token for Fifty Cash, from the Board of Revenue mint; light bronze, very fine. 36.

1779 Coin of One hundred Cash; obv., "Large coin of the Prevailing Abundance"; rev., "From the Board of Revenue, equal to one hundred"; light color, fine. 30.

1780 One hundred Cash, from the mint of Fuh-chow; appears to contain a proportion of iron. Perhaps the largest of coins now in use, its weight being about half a pound, and size 44.

1781 Fifty Cash, from the same mint; the material of this coin seems to be nearly pure copper. 36.

1782 Twenty Cash, of the same series; same material. 28.

1783 Ten Cash; same material. 23.

1784 1645 Cash, "Current Coin of the Great Lustre, or Hung-kwang. 2 pieces.

1785 1645 Cash; "Coin of the Exalted Prowess"; struck by a pretender; rare. 2 pieces.

1786 1647 Coins of Yung-Ming-Wang, a prince of the Ming house; rare. 7 pieces.

1787 1644 Coin struck by Chang Heen-chung, said to have been a "ferocious rebel." These coins are earnestly sought for by sailors, who believe they secure favorable weather for their possessors. 2 pieces. 16, 17.

1788 1655 Another rebel coin; rare, like the preceding. 18.

1789 1673 Cash; "Profitable Employment coin"; issued by a Chinese General, Woo San-kwei: rare. 4 pieces.

1790 1679 Cash; issued by Woo She-fan, grandson of the preceding; rare. 3 pieces. 16.

1791 1674 Coins issued by another rebel of the time, who adroitly chose "Enriching the People," as the designation of the period of his reign. 3 pieces, the largest very rare. 16–23.

1792 Coins of Corea; fine, scarce. 2 pieces. 19, 20.

1793 Coins of Japan; octagon and oval, the former very fine and rare. 2 pieces.

1794 Coins of Loo Choo: all good. 7 pieces.

1795 1442 and since. Coins of Anam; a rare lot. 39 pcs.

1796 A Medal: both sides covered with strange devices; material like the coins. 23.

1797 A Medal; one side inscribed with eight characters; the other bears the figures of twelve different animals, and inscription, perhaps astrological; light bronze, round hole in the centre; very fine, and rare. 29.

1798 Medal; obverse bears same inscription as the last; rev. entirely different; very fine. 30.

1799 Medal; a large figure with flowing drapery, apparently worshiping before a shrine; rev. bears in two circles, the same characters and animals as those seen on the medal last but one described; round hole in centre, and a smaller hole near the edge; dark bronze, and without doubt rare and valuable. 44.

1800 Medal bearing two grotesque figures; one may be a man or an ape, the other a bird; bird in the air above; rev., inscription; four characters; light bronze, fine. 32.

1801 Medal; inscription on each side; bronze, good. 25.

1802 Dollar of Cochin China; sun in the centre, surrounded by Chinese characters; rev., a dragon; coined by the government; silver, very fine indeed, and rare.

1803 Half Dollar of Cochin China; silver; differs in design from the preceding, but equally fine and rare.

A PRIVATE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COINS.

1804 1795 Dollar; flowing hair; good.

1805 1795 Dollar; fillet head; planchet a little streaked, bright and nucireulated; the gem of the collection.

1806 1795 Dollar; fillet head; fair.

1807 1796 Dollar; poor.

1808 1797 Dollar; sixteen stars; fair, nearly good, scarce.

1809 1798 Dollar; break in the die extending from the figure 9 over the date to left margin of the coin; barely fair, or poor.

1810 1798 Dollar; rather better than the last.

1811 1798 Dollar; still better.

1812 1799 Dollar; good, nearly fine.

1813 1800 Dollar; poor.

1814 1836 Dollar; Liberty seated; rev., flying eagle and Stars; struck proof, but has been injured by handling, still fine and desirable, rare.

1815 1841 Dollar; fine.

1816 1843 Dollar; good.
1817 1845 Dollar; very fine, surface burnished to resemble proof.
1818 1846 Dollar; very fine.
1819 1847 Dollar; very fine, only a trifle hay-marked.
1820 1850 Dollar; fine, uncirculated, a trifle hay-marked, rare.
1821 1853 Dollar; very good, rare.
1822 1859 Dollar; fine.
1823 1873 Dollar; very fine.
1824 1794 Half Dollar; all portions of the obverse perfectly distinct, the reverse good, rare.
1825 1795 Half Dollar; good; nearly fine for date, scarce.
1826 1796 Half dollar; all parts of the obverse plain and distinct with the exception of LI in LIBERTY; rev., poor, though mostly legible. S. Young stamped on the face; has been pierced near the bottom of the bust and the hole unskillfully filled, a defect easily remedied; the fifteen star variety. A former owner of this piece informs me that he paid for it $40 at auction in New York not long ago.
1827 1801 Half Dollar; poor, rare.
1828 1806 Half Dollar; pointed 6; fine.
1829 1806 Half Dollar; blunt 6; nearly fine.
1830 1807 Half Dollar; head to right; fair.
1831 1807 Half Dollar; head to left; but for a scratch on the obverse would be very fine.

THE

Medals of the Masonic Fraternity.

BY

W. T. R. MARVIN.

This work announced January 20, 1880, two parts of which were issued at that time, and which it was then hoped would be completed early in the year, is now nearly ready for delivery.

The long delay has been caused by the constant accession of new materials. Many undescribed and almost unknown Medals have been brought to light, and Mr. Marvin has continued his labor far beyond what was at first intended; the result of all this has been to the author much gratuitous labor and expense, to the publisher a vexatious delay, and to the subscribers a Work greatly increased in value and considerably in magnitude beyond what was promised. The author's labor is now completed, and the whole work will be ready in May at the latest. A few copies remain unsold in paper, uncut, at the original subscription price of $10.

Auction Sales.

The Thirty-Seventh Sale of this series will include the Clogston Collection of Pre-historic and Stone Implements and Mound Builders' Pottery; also a great number of the Memorials of the War of 1861–1865, comprising an extensive line of the Metallic Currency of that period, numerous large Hand Bills and Posters, Calls to Arms, etc., few of which have been preserved, though all of great interest — Mementoes of Sanitary Fairs, Entertainments, etc., numerous Corps and other Military and Naval Badges, together with one of the largest of all known collections of Union and Secession Envelopes, nearly seven thousand in number, and in perfect condition.

One feature of the Sale will be a good collection of Medals of Lincoln, Grant, McClellan, and others; another, a selection of U. S. Fractional Currency, a lot of Confederate Notes, and some Fractional Bills issued at the North and South; and still another, a variety of Proprietary, Medicine and Match Stamps, and a small stock of Foreign Postage Stamps.

The Catalogue is now in press, and will be distributed about the 20th of the present month. Copies of this, the Thirty Sixth Catalogue, with one Heliotype Plate, illustrating the Gold Badges or Medals, numbered 1429, 1430, and 1431, and a selection of other Medals and Coins will be sent on application, price 50 cents: the number is limited to 50. An edition on heavy tinted paper, uniform with the others of the series, has been printed for subscribers only; it will contain the plate, and will be sent by mail prieed, for $1.00. Thin paper Catalogues, with plate, without prices, 50 cents.
